Highlights of History

Read the First Hand Accounts of Kathern Firey Thomas and J.W. "Bill" Firey, Jr.

A detailed history of the early years after the turn of the century (1900's) along the banks of Rock Creek, located along the southern edge of west Tulsa County and the northern edge of Creek County, Oklahoma.

These articles are based on research and interviews with those who resided along Rock Creek in the early years and who have given first hand accounts of the history on these pages.
